

WEEK 1 Verb + to infinitive

Tuesday, 1 November 2022 9:34 PM

Imperative

Do not closer doors, please!
Do not give meals to animals.
Keep engine car turn off.
Get up early tomorrow.

Adjective

I'm afraid to be attacked.
She's happy to help you.

After WH (Question words)

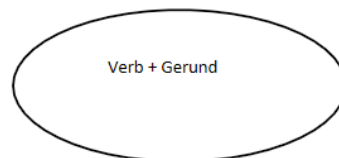

I'm at school where to be Pricilla?
I don't have idea what to eat in my house.
I'll look for new job when to improve my English.
I hope what to grow in the future.

Verbs have to infinitive (not felling / not emoticon and no action in progress)

Difficult to "base verb"
Plan to "base verb"
Promise to "base verb"
need to "base verb"
forget to "base verb"
pretend to "base verb"
safe to "base verb"
Remember to "base verb"
Start to "base verb"
Phoned to "base verb"
Try to "base verb"
Want to "base verb"
Decide to "base verb"

WEEK 1 verb + Gerund

Saturday, 5 November 2022 3:36 PM

After Preposition

I'm on beach and I'm afraid of being attacked by shark.
A Third War World will kill billions of living in earth.

Objects

Happiness is watching TV and drinking beer with friends.
My sister always liked waking up early.

Subject (When a sentence start using verb.)

Remembering to call to your mum.
Having BBQ with some friend is good.

Some Verbs have to gerund (felling / emoticon and action in progress)

enjoy GERUND
feel like GERUND
like GERUND mind GERUND
love GERUND hate GERUND
dislike GERUND
can't stand GERUND
don't mind GERUND
start GERUND
finish GERUND
stop GERUND continue/go on GERUND

Must, have to, mustn't, don't have to

Saturday, 5 November 2022 4:31 PM

